Case No.09-29596-13

NOTICE OF PENDENCY OF CLASS ACTION

To All Potential Members of the Following Class: Customers, who directly or indirectly subscribed to Hostway Corporation's, Hostway Services Inc.'s, and/or ValueWeb's ("Hostway" or "Defendants") e-mail services, including e-mail services provided by Defendants' predecessors, affiliates, subsidiaries and/or parents, and whose e-mail utilized Hostway's shared servers located in Florida, which were blacklisted from November 1, 2008 through March 31, 2009 (the "Class").

THIS NOTICE MAY AFFECT YOUR RIGHTS. PLEASE READ IT CAREFULLY.

YOU HAVE NOT BEEN SUED.

Those who paid subscription fees from November 1, 2008 through March 31, 2009, for e-mail services from Defendants and had their e-mail service interrupted because of blacklisting have sued alleging that Defendants have violated the Florida Unfair and Deceptive Trade Practices Act, breached the covenants of good faith and fair dealing and unjustly enriched themselves through certain deceptive actions with regards the e-mail services (the "Lawsuit").

The Circuit Court for Broward County (the "Court") has allowed the lawsuit to be a class action on behalf of all those who paid subscriptions fees from November 1, 2008, to March 31, 2009, for e-mail services on Hostway's shared servers in Florida and had that service interrupted by blacklistings.

Your options are explained in this notice. To opt out, you must act before June 8, 2016.

Unless this case is resolved by settlement or otherwise dismissed, Class Counsel must prove the claims against Defendants before the Court. If money or benefits are obtained from Defendants, you will be notified how to seek a share of the recovery.

Any questions not answered by this Notice of Pendency of Class Action (the "Notice") should be directed to Class Counsel and not the Court.

WHY THIS NOTICE WAS SENT TO YOU

Defendants have indicated that you are someone who paid subscription fees to use their e-mail services from November 1, 2008, through March 31, 2009, and experienced interrupted e-mail service because Hostway's Florida shared servers were blacklisted, and are therefore, a member of the Class. This notice is being sent to you pursuant to Florida Rule 1.220(d)(2) of Civil Procedure, which requires that, upon the certification of a Class, all members of the Class who can be identified and located be provided with certain information regarding the Lawsuit and their rights.

BACKGROUND OF THE LAWSUIT

Plaintiff, Golf Clubs Away LLC, sued Hostway Corporation, Hostway Services Inc., and ValueWeb Plaintiff alleges that Defendants agreed to provide the Class with e-mail services for a subscription fee. However, as Plaintiff alleges, Defendants failed to detect and permitted fraudulent and spam accounts to inundate other e-mail service providers, such as AT&T, Yahoo! and MSN, until those e-mail service providers blacklisted (or stopped accepting e-mail from) from Hostway's shared servers in Florida. Further, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants did not timely correct the issue and failed to alert its customers that their e-mail service was interrupted.

Plaintiff has requested that the Court declare these actions unlawful, order the payment of damages to the Class and enjoin Defendants from this course of conduct.

No money or benefits are available now because the Court has not yet decided whether Defendants are required to reimburse the Class for damages and Defendants are enjoined from continuing its course of conduct, and the two sides have not settled the Lawsuit. There is no guarantee that money or benefits will ever be obtained. If they are, you will be notified about how to ask for a share of any recovery.
